

E-Track Common Subjects (General Education and Special Program) Targets and Learning Outcomes (TLO)

Diploma Policy at a whole-school level

- 1 Equipped with general knowledge as an educated citizen
- 2 Equipped with advanced knowledge in his/her major field
- 3 Capable of collecting data; of engaging in logical thinking; and of resolving problems utilizing the collected data
- 4 Capable of accepting diverse cultural values; of thinking globally; of facilitating communications through working with others
- 5 Strong commitment to resolving social issues and to contributing to the society
- 6 Sense of responsibility and commitment to the society and willingness to take a risk to exploit new opportunities

Categories	Sub-categories	Course Title	Course Level	Course Format	Credits	1. Course Purpose	2. Course Objectives	3. Diploma Policy at a whole-school level
						What is the purpose of the course and what will students learn/understand from the course?	What are the course objectives and learning outcomes students are expected to achieve?	DP1	DP2	DP3	DP4	DP5	DP6
						General knowledge	Disciplinary knowledge	Problem solving ability	Global perspectives and communication ability	Social mindset and sustainability	Ethics, social responsibility and innovation
	Academic Literacy	Analytical Reading and Composition I	100	Practicum	4	To develop and practice essays skills in critical thinking, writing, argumentation, genre analysis, finding and evaluating sources, and summarizing texts. Using the skills practiced, students conduct research on a variety of topics, lead discussions and activities, and engage in course projects in preparation for their academic and professional future.	To learn the components of the process of writing summaries, and academic essays so that students may succeed in their college courses that require writing assignments. To learn to become better writers by learning to become better editors of their own writing and their peers' writing. To be able to find main ideas, take notes,	⊙		○	○
		Analytical Reading and Composition II	100	Practicum	4	To be able to think critically on subjects related to their major field of study and to compose a research paper. There are three categories of objectives for this class: reading-writing connections, writing process & organization, and writing mechanics.	This course focuses on the process of writing one critical literature review research paper for academic audiences. This class builds upon the skills learned in ACI and ART. Peer review and editing will be used in all steps of research, planning, and writing.	⊙		○	○
	Business and Social Impact	100	Lecture	4	To learn the theory and the cases on business sector's roles in achieving social impact.	To be able to understand the social problems in developing countries and learn how business can contribute to solving such problems.	⊙		○		○
	Food Value Chain and Sustainability	100	Lecture	4	To be familiar with the opportunities and challenges of each step of food value chain and the roles of various stakeholders.	To be able to understand the concept of "sustainable food value chain" and roles of business sector in achieving sustainability of food supply.	⊙		○		○
	Fundamentals of Mathematics	100	Lecture	4	To learn finite mathematics, which includes mathematics of finance, linear algebra, probability, application of linear algebra and probability.	To be able to develop academic proficiency in expression of mathematical solutions, mathematical reasoning and mathematical understanding.	⊙		○		○
	Introduction to Informatics & Computing	100	Lecture	4	To understand the basics of informatics and computing.	To be able to effectively operate computers and internet functions, including web-sites using HTML, CSS and JavaScript.	⊙		○		○
	Introduction to International Relations	100	Lecture	4	To acquire analytical tools necessary for understanding contemporary challenges and issues in global politics.	To be able to demonstrate comprehension of, and critically engage with, the discipline of international relations.	⊙		○		○
	Introduction to Law	100	Lecture	4	To acquire a foundation for studying other legal courses, based on the study of basic legal concepts and classical scholarship.	To understand basic legal concepts and major legal theories, and on this basis, start developing a legal mind.	⊙		○		○
	Introduction to Social Psychology	100	Lecture	4	To learn the basic theories and the empirical studies upon which the theories are based, of social psychology from a sociological perspective.	To be able to understand the ways in which a "society" can affect individuals' thoughts, feelings, and behavior and how "reality" are constructed in interaction between individuals.	⊙		○		○
	Introduction to Sociology	100	Lecture	4	To gain the "sociological perspective" as a tool for understanding the connections between an individual's everyday life and large-scale processes and structures within society.	To be able to apply a critical sociological lens to their understandings of reality, and will thus become wiser, more critical and careful consumers of information.	⊙		○		○
Introduction to the Islamic World	100	Lecture	4	To understand the workings and logic of the Islamic culture	To be able to appreciate the history and contemporary issues of the Islamic world.	⊙		○		○

Categories	Sub-categories	Course Title	Course Level	Course Format	Credits	1. Course Purpose	2. Course Objectives	3. Diploma Policy at a whole-school level
						What is the purpose of the course and what will students learn/understand from the course?	What are the course objectives and learning outcomes students are expected to achieve?	DP1	DP2	DP3	DP4	DP5	DP6
						General knowledge	Disciplinary knowledge	Problem solving ability	Global perspectives and communication ability	Social mindset and sustainability	Ethics, social responsibility and innovation
General Education	Liberal Arts	IT Literacy	100	Laboratory	4	To understand word processing, presentation and spreadsheet software, and learn basic skills for advanced presentations such as website design, video presentations, and interactive presentations.	To be able to understand personal security and vulnerabilities in the digital world, develop critical thinking for new media, creatively use multimedia, and understand and critique the effects of new technologies on society and individuals.	◎		○	○
		Labor Laws and Work Life	100	Lecture	4	To understand the basics and realities of labor laws and work life in Japan along with today's labor issues from global view points.	To learn labor law systems in Japan from the global view points, recognize the reality of Japan's work life and the direction of its change, and grasp the similarities and differences of labor issues between Japan and the rest of world.	◎		○		○
		Principles of Economics	100	Lecture	4	To learn the basic economic concepts and theories, including the decision making of individual agents' behavior (microeconomics) and aggregate level economic issues (macroeconomics).	To be able to understand the basic principles of economics and to perform the microeconomics and macroeconomics analysis.	◎		○		○
		Principles of Management	100	Lecture	4	To understand the principles and processes of management, including definitions and functions of management, management theories, planning, organizing, leading and controlling organizations.	To be able to make sense of fundamental concepts and frameworks of business management.	◎		○		○
		Principles of Political Science	100	Lecture	4	To learn the major themes of Political Science, the major concepts used in Political Science, and the methodologies political scientists use to evaluate rival theories.	To be able to familiarize with the analytical tools needed to study politics cross-nationally, as well as acquaint them with the political arrangements of various regions of the world.	◎
		Statistics I	100	Lecture	4	To familiarize with the basics of statistical thinking, language, and techniques.	To be able to distinguish among the sampling methods for the collection of data in order to assess the validity of statistical conclusions, among other things.	◎		○		○
		Sustainable Society	100	Lecture	4	To understand the basic principles of sustainability, using the triple bottom line perspective: environment (planet), society (people), and economy (profit).	To be able to explain basic theories and issues pertaining to sustainability and to analyze real-world issues from a sustainability perspective.	◎		○		○
		World Economy	100	Lecture	4	To examine historical evolution and dynamics of global capitalism, from the 1400s to the Great Divergence then to the interwar and post war era, and finally the contemporary area.	To be able to develop an understanding of phases and cycles of global capitalism and to analyze the role of culture, technologies and institutions in promoting or hampering development.	◎		○		○
		Topics in Liberal Arts	100/200	Lecture	2	To learn various issues and phenomena about behavior of humans and their environment. Topics vary, depending on instructors. Classes meet once a week.	To be able to acquire knowledge and experience of the topic.	◎		○		○
	Topics in Liberal Arts	100/200	Lecture	4	To learn various issues and phenomena about behavior of humans and their environment. Topics vary, depending on instructors. Classes meet twice a week.	To be able to acquire knowledge and experience of the topic.	◎		○		○
		Elementary Japanese 1A	100	Practicum	4	To understand and use very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of daily life.	Can produce simple mainly isolated phrases about people and places.	◎		○		○
		Elementary Japanese 1B	100	Practicum	4	Continuation of EJ1A. To understand basic everyday expressions and to use them in a simple conversation.	Can ask and answer simple questions, initiate and respond to simple statements in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	◎		○		○
		Elementary Japanese 2A	100	Practicum	4	To understand and use sentences and expressions closely adhere to daily life.	Can give a simple description or presentation of people, life, daily routines, likes/dislikes, etc.	◎		○		○
		Elementary Japanese 2B	100	Practicum	4	Continuation of EJ2A. To understand expressions used in daily life, communicate simply, and explain surroundings in simple words.	Can manage simple, routine exchanges without undue effort; can ask and answer questions and exchange ideas and information on familiar topics in predictable everyday situations.	◎		○		○
		Intermediate Japanese 1	200	Practicum	4	To understand familiar societal topics, deal with most situations, and briefly express opinions and the reasons behind them.	Can reasonably fluently sustain a straightforward description of one of a variety of subjects within his/her field of interest.	◎		○		○

Categories	Sub-categories	Course Title	Course Level	Course Format	Credits	1. Course Purpose	2. Course Objectives	3. Diploma Policy at a whole-school level
						What is the purpose of the course and what will students learn/understand from the course?	What are the course objectives and learning outcomes students are expected to achieve?	DP1	DP2	DP3	DP4	DP5	DP6
						General knowledge	Disciplinary knowledge	Problem solving ability	Global perspectives and communication ability	Social mindset and sustainability	Ethics, social responsibility and innovation
Japanese	Intermediate Japanese 2	200	Practicum	4	To speak naturally about various societal topics and express opinions in a clear and detailed manner.	Can give clear, detailed descriptions and presentations on a wide range of subjects related to his/her field of interest, expanding and supporting ideas with subsidiary points and relevant examples.	◎		○	○
	Advanced Japanese 1	200	Practicum	4	To understand a broad variety of complex topics, use appropriate words for a situation, and put together complex arguments.	Can give clear, systematically developed descriptions and presentations, with appropriate highlighting of significant points, and relevant supporting detail.	◎		○	○
	Advanced Japanese 2	200	Practicum	4	To understand almost all topics, including abstract concepts, and to logically reconstruct arguments and accounts.	Can give clear, detailed descriptions and presentations on complex subjects, developing particular points and rounding off with an appropriate conclusion.	◎		○	○
	Upper-Advanced Japanese	200	Practicum	2	To develop the JLPT N1-level proficiency to further enhance students' language skills.	Can comprehend academic texts precisely, to summarize what is read, to search and organize information and generating discussion and giving opinions.	◎		○	○
	Business Japanese	200	Practicum	2	To acquire Japanese language skills necessary for business and business culture in Japan.	Can handle appropriate business interactions including business communication such as explaining, requesting, negotiating, and giving oral presentations.	◎		○	○
Special Program	Career Experience Practicum	100	Practicum	2	To learn the skills necessary at a work place.	To be able to gain practical knowledge by working for a company or government for a short period of time.	◎		○	○	○
	How to Succeed at TIU and Beyond	100	Practicum	2	To learn how best to complete the course work in order to graduate TIU and to find a desirable career.	To be able to gain knowledge about how to complete the program in order to graduate college and find a job.	◎		○		○
	Internship	100	Practicum	1	To learn the practical issues and skills by working for a company or government for a certain period of time as an intern.	To be able to communicate with the co-workers and acquire the knowledge to survive and succeed in a work place.	◎		○	○	○
	Volunteer	100	Practicum	1	To learn how to communicate with other people and gain knowledge by participating a volunteer activity.	To be able to acquire analytical skills, ability to solve problems, leadership, and teamwork.	◎		○	○	○
	Study Abroad Seminar A	100	Seminar	4	To learn the language, society, culture, and history of a country of destination.	To be able to communicate with the local people of the country of destination.	◎		○	○	○
	Study Abroad Seminar B	100	Seminar	2	To learn the language, society, culture, and history of a country of destination.	To be able to communicate with the local people of the country of destination.	◎		○	○	○
	Advanced Argumentation & Debate	200	Practicum	2	To understand the concept of argumentation and learn the rules and procedure of academic debate.	To be able to exchanging opinions on contemporary social issues with others in analytical and critical manner.	◎		○	○	○
	Business Project E	200	Practicum	4	To acquire leadership and basic business skills through project-based learning	To find their individual leadership strengths, understand the outline of management, and acquire basic business skills	◎		○	○	○
	Topics in Japan Studies	300	Lecture	2	To understand the basic concepts, theoretical debates, and methodologies of a subject related to Japan studies. Meet once a week.	To be able to deepen the understanding of Japanese culture and society.	◎		○		○
Topics in Japan Studies	300	Lecture	4	To understand the basic concepts, theoretical debates, and methodologies of a subject related to Japan studies. Meet twice a week.	To be able to deepen the understanding of Japanese culture and society.	◎		○		○

E-Track International Relations Major Courses Targets and Learning Outcomes (TLO)

Sub-categories	Course Title	Course Level	Course Format	Credits	1. Course Purpose	2. Course Objectives	3. Relevance to IR Major's Diploma Policy
					What is the purpose of the course and what will students learn/understand from the course?	What are the course objectives and learning outcomes students are expected to achieve?	DP 1	DP 2	DP 3	DP 4	DP 5
							The ability to acquire wide-range of knowledge and diverse perspectives	The ability to obtain expertise knowledge on international relations and the communication skills that are necessary to apply such knowledge	The ability to grasp diverse values and cultures of the global society and to tackle various problems independently as well as in cooperation with others	The ability to collect and analyze information and data necessary for understanding and resolving global issues, and doing so with a logical thinking, critical mind, and diverse perspectives	The ability to engage in society as a global citizen and to make the best use of the knowledge and experience on international relations to contribute to the society
Core	Comparative Culture	200	Lecture	4	To become familiar with the ways in which modernization and industrialization have affected modern Japanese history.	To be able to apply concepts, such as nationalism and modernization, to analyze specific historical events.	☉		○	○
	Comparative Politics	200	Lecture	4	To introduce students theories and debates of the subject, as well as history of political, economic, and cultural relations of various regions.	To be able to develop the analytical and reading skills required for political studies	☉		○	○
	Global Sociology	200	Lecture	4	To examine some of the main social institutions common in societies all over the world.	To be able to learn the ways our understandings of reality are impacted by institutions we experience.	☉		○	○
	Human Rights	200	Lecture	4	To examine the emergence of human rights systems at a global, regional, and local level with attention to the emergence of the global human rights movement.	To be able to demonstrate an understanding of key debates in human rights and trace the emergence of contemporary human rights and humanitarian practice.	☉		○	○
	International Law	200	Lecture	4	To introduce students with the international legal order and the specificities of international law as compared to domestic law.	To be able to understand the complexities of the applicability of international law, jurisprudence, and legal order in different contexts.	☉		○	○
	International Political Economy	200	Lecture	4	To become familiar with the major theories and ideas in the study of international political economy.	To be able to gain a solid understanding of research in international political economy.	☉		○	○
	International Politics	200	Lecture	4	To understand various issues on war and peace from theoretical and historical perspectives.	To learn and critically evaluate basic concepts and theories of international politics.	☉		○	○
	International Security	200	Lecture	4	To understand not only the main theories on the origins of wars but some troubling issues that are of concern for policymakers.	To be able to think theoretically about security issues.	☉		○	○
	Japan and the Islamic World	200	Lecture	4	To understand how Japan encountered the Islamic civilization, focusing on literature and popular culture.	To be able to appreciate how people react when two totally different cultures meet and interact.	☉		○	○
	Maritime Security and Ocean Governance	200	Lecture	4	To explore the factors that determine international rules and norms in the world's oceans and seas.	To be able to know the history of modern international maritime regime and entitlements of coastal states.	☉		○	○
	Political Economy of Development	200	Lecture	4	To explore the origin and evolution of socio-economic development in select developing economies across the globe.	To be able to explain the major theoretical discussions in development studies.	☉		○	○
	Political Theory	200	Lecture	4	To gain a solid foundation in political theory that will prepare students for future study in political science.	To be able to understand the role as citizens in a democratic society and to think critically about political issues.	☉		○	○
Understanding Globalization	200	Lecture	4	To understand major concepts, debates, and reflections related to political, economic, and cultural globalization.	To be able to understand the major controversies resulted from political, economic, and cultural globalization processes as well as the deficiencies.	☉		○	○
	Chinese Politics in Comparative Perspective	300	Lecture	4	To introduce students to key concepts of Chinese politics and foreign policy.	To be able to understand the political transformations of China and the principles and practices of Chinese foreign policy.	☉		○	○
	Contemporary Japanese Literature	300	Lecture	4	To explore some of the key authors of the last century and their works and discover the historical and social contexts in which these works were written.	To be able to identify important modern Japanese authors and their colleagues.	☉		○	○
	International Development	300	Lecture	4	To examine how the development of nations can be started and what types of structure are necessary to promote growth on each country.	To be able to understand the current and principal development issues.	☉		○	○

Sub-categories	Course Title	Course Level	Course Format	Credits	1. Course Purpose	2. Course Objectives	3. Relevance to IR Major's Diploma Policy
					What is the purpose of the course and what will students learn/understand from the course?	What are the course objectives and learning outcomes students are expected to achieve?	DP 1	DP 2	DP 3	DP 4	DP 5
							The ability to acquire wide-range of knowledge and diverse perspectives	The ability to obtain expertise knowledge on international relations and the communication skills that are necessary to apply such knowledge	The ability to grasp diverse values and cultures of the global society and to tackle various problems independently as well as in cooperation with others	The ability to collect and analyze information and data necessary for understanding and resolving global issues, and doing so with a logical thinking, critical mind, and diverse perspectives	The ability to engage in society as a global citizen and to make the best use of the knowledge and experience on international relations to contribute to the society
Advanced	International Environmental Policy	300	Lecture	4	To survey leading transnational environment issues facing the globe from a few perspectives.	To be able to understand the transnational environmental challenges facing the globe and their causes.	◎		○	○
	International Integration	300	Lecture	4	To compare and contrast integration processes in different world regions, including Asia, Europe, and America.	To be able to have plans with imagination and creativity for the future global peace through integrational approach.	◎		○	○
	International Organization	300	Lecture	4	To explore the role of international organizations in world politics and the legal framework within which they operate.	To be able to show a familiarity with a wide range of substantive issues in international organizations.	◎		○	○
	International Relations of Asia-Pacific	300	Lecture	4	To understand the relations and issues among the countries surrounding the Asia-Pacific region.	To be able to conceptualize the driving forces and mechanism of the development of the Asia-Pacific order.	◎		○	○
	International Relations of Europe	300	Lecture	4	To explore the international relations of Europe since 1945 with a focus on the origins of the European Union and foreign policies of its member states.	To be able to demonstrate familiarity with institutions of the EU and its policy making process.	◎		○	○
	International Relations of South Asia	300	Lecture	4	To learn the essential features of domestic politics, socio-economic transformation, and foreign policy in the eight states of South Asia.	To be able to explain the domestic and external determinants of foreign policy-making in the states of South Asia.	◎		○	○
	International Relations of Southeast Asia	300	Lecture	4	To analyze how Southeast Asian states interact with each other and with the wider world.	To be able to explain how colonialism, economic development, identity, and religious beliefs shape Southeast Asia's IR.	◎		○	○
	International Relations of the Middle East	300	Lecture	4	To acquire the skill to think theoretically about the history of the Middle East.	To be able to understand the variety of ways in which this region impacts other regions.	◎		○	○
	Japanese Politics in Comparative Perspective	300	Lecture	4	To understand the emergence and consolidation of Japan's 1955 system and its transformation after 1993.	To be able to develop the analytical and reading skills required for political studies.	◎		○	○
	Japanese Popular Culture	300	Lecture	4	To learn the history of manga, anime, filmmaking, and other forms of popular culture in Japan.	To be able to demonstrate the way in which popular culture is used to further policy goals.	◎		○	○
	Japanese Society	300	Lecture	4	To examine key social institutions in contemporary Japan, including families, schools, and workplaces.	To be able to gain a more complicated, yet accurate and nuanced understanding of Japanese society.	◎		○	○
	Media and Society in Japan	300	Lecture	4	To understand the key issues and debate surrounding media and society in Japan	To be able to describe how Japanese people obtain, consume, and disseminate public information.	◎		○	○
	Pre-Modern Japanese Literature	300	Lecture	4	To explore a variety of works from very possible era and their contexts in order to better understand not only Japanese literature but also history and culture.	To be able to identify major pre-modern Japanese authors and describe their works.	◎		○	○
	Qualitative Research Methods	300	Lecture	4	To learn about research methods, theories, ethics, and design.	To be able to apply what they learned in class to design and implement an original research project.	◎		○	○
	Topics in International Relations	300	Lecture	2	Topics vary, depending on instructors. Classes meet once a week.	To be able to acquire knowledge and experience of the topic.	◎		○	○
Topics in International Relations	300	Lecture	4	Topics vary, depending on instructors. Classes meet twice a week	To be able to acquire knowledge and experience of the topic.	◎		○	○

Sub-categories	Course Title	Course Level	Course Format	Credits	1. Course Purpose	2. Course Objectives	3. Relevance to IR Major's Diploma Policy
					What is the purpose of the course and what will students learn/understand from the course?	What are the course objectives and learning outcomes students are expected to achieve?	DP 1	DP 2	DP 3	DP 4	DP 5
							The ability to acquire wide-range of knowledge and diverse perspectives	The ability to obtain expertise knowledge on international relations and the communication skills that are necessary to apply such knowledge	The ability to grasp diverse values and cultures of the global society and to tackle various problems independently as well as in cooperation with others	The ability to collect and analyze information and data necessary for understanding and resolving global issues, and doing so with a logical thinking, critical mind, and diverse perspectives	The ability to engage in society as a global citizen and to make the best use of the knowledge and experience on international relations to contribute to the society
	Tourism: Analysis and Planning	300	Lecture	4	To understand the development of the tourism industry, applying economic, historical, and other perspectives.	To be able to examine tourism development globally & in selected countries.	☉		○	○
	U.S. Politics and Foreign Policy	300	Lecture	4	To obtain knowledge on how domestic politics affect foreign policy and vice versa in the United States.	To be able to identify major issues and debates in the study and practice of U.S. international relations.	☉		○	○
	Undergraduate Thesis Writing Seminar	300	Lecture	4	To learn the basic skills for how to develop a topic, find and organize sources, and organize and present at thesis proposal.	To be able to develop topic of interest into a viable research question and explain the importance of the question.	☉		○	○
	War and Peace in East Asia	300	Lecture	4	To learn basic theories of security study, as well as political and military problems in East Asia.	To be able to analyze security problems in their countries.	☉		○	○
Seminars	Critical Approaches to Development Politics	400	Seminar	4	To deal with the varieties of entrepreneurship in Asia by exploring case studies on many countries across Asia.	To be able to define the nature of Asian entrepreneurs and to demonstrate and compare various policies and business cultures.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	Gender in International Relations	400	Seminar	4	To introduce the critical feminist approach to International Relations, and compare and contrast it with the two dominant schools in IR, Realism and Liberalism.	To be able to critically examine the dominant paradigms in IR, and move from a state-centric or market-centric approach to IR to a more human rights-centric approach.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	International Relations in the Age of AI	400	Seminar	4	To understand IR theory, law, and practice against the background of recent groundbreaking changes brought about by advancements in artificial intelligence (AI).	To be able to understand important theoretical and policy questions in the field of human security, warfare, law, economics, and statecraft.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	International Relations of China	400	Seminar	4	To understand major theories and analytical frameworks of international relations in the fast changing world.	To be able to master the research skills by analyzing international issues with appropriate theory (or theories).	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	International Relations of Japan	400	Seminar	4	To understand how international and domestic factors have constrained, as well as stimulated, Japanese foreign policy for the last 150 years.	To be able to evaluate basic concepts and existing explanations about various aspects of Japanese foreign policy.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	Issues in Popular Culture	400	Seminar	4	To examine in detail concepts that examine the nature of popular media and culture.	To be able to describe major theorists who discussed aspects of popular culture and their concepts.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	Non-state Actors and Political Violence	400	Seminar	4	To understand the three main inter-related topics: asymmetric war-fare, terrorism and counter-terrorism, and dynamics of intra-state conflicts.	To be able to familiarize with the state of the art literature on terrorism issues and get to understand the main debates.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	Political Development of Asia	400	Seminar	4	To introduce students to the leading theories and debates and the history of political, economic, and cultural relations of the region.	To be able to improve the understanding of political history in Asia.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	Regional Governance in Asia	400	Seminar	4	To provide an overview of the Asian institutional landscape and the way it operates.	To be familiar with major Asian international organizations and their characteristic features, their interactions, and their different inputs and outputs.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	Resource Politics	400	Seminar	4	To be familiar with the different theories, ideas and research in resource politics.	To be able to gain a solid understanding of research in resource politics, including knowledge to engage in own research project.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
	Topics in International Relations	400	Lecture	2	Topics vary, depending on instructors. Classes meet once a week.	To be able to acquire knowledge and experience of the topic.	○	☉	☉	○	☉
Topics in International Relations	400	Lecture	4	Topics vary, depending on instructors. Classes meet twice a week	To be able to acquire knowledge and experience of the topic.	○	☉	☉	○	☉

Sub-categories	Course Title	Course Level	Course Format	Credits	1. Course Purpose	2. Course Objectives	3. Relevance to IR Major's Diploma Policy
					What is the purpose of the course and what will students learn/understand from the course?	What are the course objectives and learning outcomes students are expected to achieve?	DP 1	DP 2	DP 3	DP 4	DP 5
							The ability to acquire wide-range of knowledge and diverse perspectives	The ability to obtain expertise knowledge on international relations and the communication skills that are necessary to apply such knowledge	The ability to grasp diverse values and cultures of the global society and to tackle various problems independently as well as in cooperation with others	The ability to collect and analyze information and data necessary for understanding and resolving global issues, and doing so with a logical thinking, critical mind, and diverse perspectives	The ability to engage in society as a global citizen and to make the best use of the knowledge and experience on international relations to contribute to the society
	Transitional Justice	400	Seminar	4	To understand the practice of transitional justice and its dilemmas through an exploration of a number of geographically diverse case studies.	To be able to demonstrate an understanding of key debates in transitional justice.	○	◎	◎	○	◎
	U.S.Policy toward Asia	400	Seminar	4	To explore the ever-evolving relationships of the United States with countries, multilateral institutions and non-state actors in East Asia.	To be able to relate International Relations Theories with American policy as a superpower/great power.	○	◎	◎	○	◎
Independent Study	Undergraduate Thesis	400	Independent Study	4	To explore the topic of the student's interest. Develop causal arguments and test them with empirical evidence.	To be able to produce a major research paper based on scientific methods.	○	◎	◎	○	◎
Core	アメリカの政治と外交	200	Lecture	4	アメリカがどのように世界と関わってきたのかを、アメリカの伝統や国内情勢を関係づけながら検証する。	アメリカ外交の伝統と現実との関係、アメリカ外交の特質などについて理解する。	○		○	◎
	国際NGO論	200	Lecture	4	本当に役立つNGO活動を実践するにはどうすればよいか。その答えを、本授業でさぐってゆく。	NGOの組織特性やマネジメント、問題解決のプロセスを体系的に身につけることを目標とする。	○		○	◎
	国際ボランティア論	200	Lecture	4	途上国の人たちと一緒に国作りに励むとはどういうものかについて実践的経験を通じて学ぶ。	グローバルな問題がなぜ起きるのか構造的に理解し、自分たちに何ができるかの課題を見つけて行動に結びつける。	◎		○	○
	中東の政治と外交	200	Lecture	4	中東が国際政治の中でどのような役割を果たし、またどのように被害を受けてきたかを検討する。	中東地域の政治状況を学び、根源的な問題を理解できるようになることが目的である。	◎		○	○
Advanced	朝鮮半島の政治と外交	300	Lecture	4	急変する世界および北東アジアの政治・安保においてその変化の中心にある朝鮮半島の状況を理解する。	戦後から現在にいたるまで、朝鮮半島が抱える諸問題の正しい理解とその多角的解決を図る。	○		○	◎	