September 1st, 2026
Tokyo International University
Office of the Library
Academic Subsidies Office

The Fraud Prevention Structure for Public Research Funds at Tokyo International University

Based on Section 5 (2) External publication of policies for the prevention of misconduct, etc., of "Standards for Implementation of Management and Audits of Public Research Funds at Tokyo International University," the fraud prevention structure at Tokyo International University will be announced as follows.

1. Action policy, code of conduct

   It is as shown in the separate "Standards for Implementation of Management and Audits of Public Research Funds at Tokyo International University".

2. Fraud prevention plan

   It is as shown in the separate "Public Research Fund Fraud Prevention Plan".

3. Internal responsibility Hierarchy

   It is as follows

   - Person with final managing responsibility for operation and management of competitive research funds, etc.: University President　Tatsumi Hirayama,
   - Chief administrator: Chief Administrative Officer　Koichi Ymamauchi
   - Person responsible for promoting compliance: Manager of Academic Subsidies Office　Ayako Kato

   Please refer to Section 1 of the separate "Standards for Implementation of Management and Audits of Public Research Funds at Tokyo International University" for each responsibility and authority.

4. Contact point for inquiries

   The contact point for inquiries about the university's rules regarding the use of public research funds is as follows.

   - Academic Subsidies Office:　049-277-5870

5. Whistleblowing contact point

   The contact point for pointing out suspicions of fraud from inside and outside the university, reports from persons directly involved etc. are as follows.

   - The Corporation Head Office “Compliance Desk”:　compliance-ml@tiu.ac.jp