It is the mission of the Institute for International Strategy (IIS) to:

1. Conduct interdisciplinary research on issues of strategic international importance from global and Japanese perspectives;
2. Communicate research outcomes in the form of publications and other activities;
3. Create international and local networks of researchers and/or practitioners; and
4. Provide cutting-edge information and contribute to raising the awareness of students about issues of strategic importance both internationally and locally.
